My dear Dr. Meyer:

I am adding these few words to Mrs. Padula's letter to you of this date. I have received your interesting letter of November 17 and your description of your experience and thank you warmly for both.

We have discussed your problem carefully with Mrs. Padula and have been in touch with Mr. Jordan of the Physician's Committee who sent you an airmail letter yesterday. It would seem to me that the wisest thing is to follow closely his advice as you are in Virginia not only individually as a refugee but as the first representative of a group of refugee physicians in that state.

Sincerely hoping that matters will turn out satisfactorily after all,

Most sincerely yours,

T. Schaufuss
Tatiana Schaufuss,

P.S. I saw Dr. Max Michel yesterday who is very disappointed about not being able to sell your bronze statuette at the price you and Mrs. Meyer were thinking of. He told me that an expert had evaluated it at $20. I asked him not to make any decisions about the bronze without first consulting you. With best regards to you and Mrs. Meyer,

T.S.

My dear Dr. Meyer:

Mrs. Schaufuss and I have discussed the difficulties that you are having in Virginia and we both feel the best course is for you to follow Mr. Jordan's advice.

We know that this advice is not easy to accept, but adjustment in a situation such as yours is never easy.

Attached is a letter from Mrs. Schaufuss with reference to the same subject.

Very sincerely yours,

(Mrs.) Helen Padula
Case Worker
