SERVICE OFFICE - 165 WEST 46TH STREET, NEW YORK, N. Y.

TELEPHONE: BRYANT 9-2102

December 4, 1939.

Heinz Meyer M.D.
Konnarock, Va.

My dear Dr. Meyer:

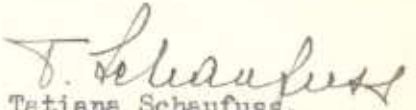

Mr. Jordan just telephoned to me the contents of your wire and I am extremely happy to know that you have taken what seems to us here the right decision. I have reasons to believe that the examination is merely a formality which you have to go through.

Therefore, please keep your good spirits and remember, as we have often said to each other that finally everything turns out to the best.

How is Ernst? Please write us a few words about his health. And how is Mrs. Meyer? I am sure that she is bravely standing this new test.

With kindest regards to you all,

Very cordially,

Tatiana Schaufuss,
Migration Service.
