Dear Margaret -

Thank you for your note with list of items I should take. I had used ATO's checklist but yours was handier. I forgot the Septo-bismal when I went to the drug store but I'll try to pick it up here or at J & K. I am pleased that you deem the planned itinerary interesting + worthwhile. information

This contact list is provided for use in emergencies. As it can be difficult to reach travelers by telephone since they are seldom indoors except at night, a fax may be more effective. Please be clear with the lodge or hotel that you are trying to reach an OAT group member. To determine the location of the group please refer to the list below, note that Day 1 is the trip departure date from the U.S.

? → The hotel may not have a record of individual guest names. If this is the case, ask for the OAT trip leader. Due to the nature of adventure travel, we may at times alter our itinerary to best fit the adventure of the day. If you can not get through to the guest at the listed hotel, please contact our ground operator at the number listed below.
